

Talented youth strut their stuff!!

Left, first place winner Jessica Seale plays violin for the audience during the hour-long Youth Talent Contest at The Dock, Nov. 3. Above, Tiffany Leon plays the keyboard and sings her way into second place in the pre-teen category of the annual contest.

Traci Broughton finishes her first-place dance performance in the pre-teen category. Participants can range from ages 4 through 18. The performances can be anything from magic acts to comedy routines to singing and dancing. For complete rules for entering next year's contest, call 652-5014.

Above, Alexandra Eppert dances to "Come On Over" by Christina Aguilera. The fast-paced moves earned her second place in the teen category.

Photos by Senior Airman Melanie Bobair

The contestants celebrate when winners are announced. After months of practice and hard work, the participants finally get to sing, dance and play their hearts out for an audience.